His Death This Morning After a Long and Painful Illness.

James Dennis Gunn died this morning at 6:15 of cardiac asthma, aged 50 years, 3 months and 22 days.

He leaves a wife and seven children—five girls and two boys.

He was born in Port Hope, Canada, and had been 28 years in this country.

Mr. Gunn had been afflicted for many years, and all will testify that he was a most patient and uncomplaining sufferer.

He was an ex-soldier of the Federal Army, and member of Joe Heiser Post of the funeral arrangements had not been settled when THE LEDGER went to press, but it will probably be delayed until the arrival of his brother from Canada and his brother-in-law, Louis R. Zech, from New York.

IT'S SO IF IT'S IN THE LEDGER.

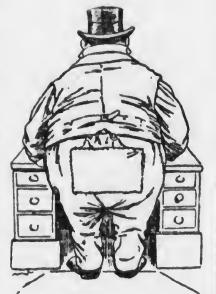

Thomas Bashford, formerly of Paris, was shot and killed in San Francisco yesterday. There was no particular but it is presumed he was killed while on duty, as he was in the military in the city then. He is a brother of Allen Bashford, a well known merchant tailor and tanner, and of James Bashford, known in distilling circles.

HURRAH FOR INDIANA!

Have You Heard What the Wild Waves Say?

REPUBLICANS ARE RAMPANT.

Democratic Strongholds Swept as by a Kansas Cyclone.

THIS IS WHAT DID IT.

THE LEDGER has space to give a more epitome of Tuesday's elections.

It won't require much room, however, to record the Democratic victories.

DEMOCRATIC.

In the Third District of Ohio Sorg, Democrat, is elected to Congress, by about 1,300—a Democratic loss of 2,700.

In Indiana only two that report the election of Democratic tickets are Madison, Mt. Vernon and Washington, and in all these the Democratic majorities were greatly reduced.

REPUBLICAN.

The most significant and overwhelming victory was at Ft. Wayne, usually Democratic by from 2,500 to 3,000. The Republican candidate for Mayor and the entire ticket was elected by 400.

Surely less overwhelming was the defeat the Democracy sustained in Terre Haute. Two years ago the Democrats carried the city by 500, but now the Republicans elect their ticket by majorities ranging from 900 to 1,500.

The result in New Albany is almost incredible. Here, with a Democratic majority of over 1,000 to overcome, the Republicans elected every candidate, the Democrats not even electing a single Councilman. This is the first time in its history that the Republicans have carried New Albany.

Surely less astonishing was the result in Columbus and Seymour. Both cities elected Republican officials, a Republican gain of 1,100 helping shown in the former.

At Lafayette, where the Democrats have been in control, the Republicans elect the Mayor by 500, and control the Council by 6 to 8.

Jeffersonville, which is usually reliably Democratic by 300, elects the whole Rep. publican ticket.

Democratic Anderson elects a Repub. Mayor by 500.

The Democratic cities of Alexandria and Elwood join the Republican column.

South Bend turns out her Democratic Southers and shows a Republican gain of over 500.

Brazil changes her politics and is Republican.

Lawrenceburg repudiates Democracy and elects the Republican candidate by an average majority of 350.

Even Democratic Brookville, Mo., has elected a Republican Mayor.

And there's enough more of the same to fill two columns of THE LEDGER.

But this is enough to warn the statement that this is a mighty poor year for Democrats.

Perhaps the March freeze killed them along with the rest of the garden truck.

The Rev. E. L. Southgate, Chaplain at the Confederate Veterans' Association at Lexington, has resigned his position owing to the criticism of his utterances by sympathizers with Colonel Breckinridge. The reverend gentleman expressed the opinion that the Congressman ought not to be returned to Congress.

DAYLIGHT FOOTPADS.

They Held Up a Lewis County Man Yesterday, and Got $9.

Charles Norman is his name. From Poplar Flat he came. He met a pair of footpads. Who robbed him of his "scads." If you don't like that poetry you don't have to.

But to return: Norman and a fellow hayseed came down to see the town and buy a barrel of flour and a load of coal.

Somehow or another Norman got separated from his partner and the wagon while the latter was being loaded at Wormald's Elevators.

Meandering around in the neighbor hood of Ball, Mitchel & Co.'s Foundry, he probably became so engrossed watching the girls make the sparks fly that he didn't notice the approach of a bunch of "beauts."

At all events, before he had time to tell that he had 75 cents more in his vest pocket, a couple of local toughs ordered him to "hold up his hands," when they went through him like a dose of salts. They got $9 and away.

The description given the police by Norman will probably lead to the early arrest of one well known local thief.

WEATHER AND CROPS.

Conditions Throughout Kentucky Much More Favorable.

The weather conditions of the past week were, upon the whole, the most favorable of the season thus far. The temperature during the first three days was somewhat below the normal in most parts of the state, and light frosts were reported from a few places on the 23d, 24th and 25th, but the latter part of the week was exceptionally warm for the season, the maximum temperature during the last three days ranging from 85° to 90°. The amount of sunshine received was amply sufficient for the needs of all crops, and in consequence the general tone of reports received is decidedly favorable. All crops except those damaged by heavy redemption are making rapid strides in their recovery from the effects of the March frost, and although still somewhat behind for the season, they are likely to attain their normal condition very soon should the favorable weather continue.

A great deal of progress has been made in corn planting, and in some sections the work is about completed, while in others it is still under way. It is estimated that about two thirds of the seed is now in the ground. The present prospects for this crop are entirely favorable.

The promising character of reports received last week in regard to wheat is repeated in this week's reports. In all sections of the state it is in excellent condition and still improving very rapidly. It is probable that the outlook for this crop has not been better in several years at this season.

Rye and grasses are also in a very forward state, but clover is generally reported to be very poor.

Oats, with the exception of those planted after the March frost, do not promise well. They are very thin and uneven in most sections, and the prospects for a crop are not very flattering. Many fields have been plowed up and re-sown.

While there is no doubt that the fruit crop was badly injured by the severe cold during the latter part of March, still the reports received from week to week continue to be of a more favorable tone. Some correspondents state that there is a good prospect for a crop of late apples and pears.

A fair yield of strawberries and cherries in some sections is expected.

The peach crop will be very short.

Grapes are generally reported to be in good condition.

Gardens have made good progress during the week and look very promising, though they are somewhat backward.

From reports received it is apparent that tobacco plants have improved, and that, except in a few sections, there will be an ample number for setting. Complaint is made of the smallness of the plants, which will tend to delay the setting season somewhat, though correspondents in several of the Southwestern counties state that they will be ready not later than the 10th of May.

The correspondent in Muhlenburg county reports that bugs are injuring tobacco plants. The worms are doing considerable damage to corn and gardens in the Southern counties.

The weather outlook is for showers, following by fair and cooler.

THIS MAY BE WHY.

cause of the Ill-Winds Blown By Democratic Congressmen.

An alarming condition of affairs so far as the ventilation of the House of Representatives is concerned was shown in a report made by experts to the Committee on Ventilation and Acoustics.

The report showed that 400,000 cubic feet of impure air comes up the main floor from the cellar every hour, and that the good air forced through to the main floor of the House, passes between grating bars that are practically closed and receptacles for bits of paper and other cast-off matter.

Besides this the report showed that there are a large number of documents on the lower floor, which are of a state of decay, and the carpets on the floor are saturated with filth and tobacco juice and need cleaning.

The experts recommend as a remedy for this condition of affairs that air be pumped in from above the hall instead of from below, as now.

HOW MONEY GROWS.

From $5,000 a Fund Reaches $400,000 in a Hundred Years.

New York Press.

Benjamin Franklin's bequest of $5,000 to the city of Boston, made over a century ago on condition that the principal and interest should be allowed to grow for one hundred years, was an act of far sighted benevolence and a noteworthy object lesson in the accumulating power of money. Recently when this fund became available, it was found that the original investment of $5,000 had increased to $430,000. "Poor Richard" has done his part in forcing more and more the value of money.

According to the terms of Franklin's will, the value of the fund was to be set aside for another hundred years in the same manner that the original had been.

And the residue of the fund was to be devoted to anything that would improve or beautify the city, advance the comfort or happiness of its citizens, attract visitors or protect the city from enemies.

The trustees of the fund, therefore, have $330,000 at their disposal for any of these general objects. It is proposed to build and equip an institution to be known as the Franklin Trade School. If the money could be applied to a purpose more in accord with the practical and philanthropical teachings of the rugged old statesman and philosopher.

The Democratic State Central Committee of North Dakota adopted resolutions rebuking the Democrats in the Senate for their inactivity at this time, when the country demands prompt legislation. Where is the Democratic party at, anyhow?

IRELAND has 107,571 paupers—that is, inmates of the almshouse or in receipt of outdoor assistance. That's a pretty good showing out of a population of less than 5,000,000, and goes a long way to show what British Free-trade has done for that once prosperous people.

OUR drowning friends of the late Democratic party are grasping at the results of the Tariff of 1846 as a straw to save them. The Walker Tariff was well enough in its way; but, gentlemen, tell us something about your "Free-trade Tariff" of 1857? Now don't all speak at once; wait till Brother Mavsu opens the box with his little hatchet.

GROVER CLEVELAND's interference in framing legislation on the Tariff Bill was fully exploited in the Senate a few days ago. So painful and so shameful was the exposure that the Chairman of the Finance Committee, Mr. VORHEES, was driven into posturism, which can find support only in fecklessness, and which will be practically shown to be untrue within the next thirty days.

The proceedings developed the fact that the negotiations for a compromise between the warring Democrats are being guided by President CLEVELAND and his Secretary of the Treasury, and that the entire plan of the Administration is to make every concession necessary to get the bill through the Senate and into the Conference Committee, where every "I" and "T" of its schedule will be dotted and crossed in exact accordance with the wish of Mr. CLEVELAND.

These interesting developments were precipitated by the Republican leader, Senator ALDRICH of Rhode Island.

Senator LINDSAY of Kentucky was voicing a Free-trade argument, in the course of which he had a great deal to say about something he called "the policy of the Democratic party."

Mr. ALDRICH boldly declared that nobody could tell what that policy is, and put Mr. LINDSAY in a dilemma by asking whether he agreed with the doctrine of Mr. MILLS that revenues should be raised from coffee, tea and sugar, and the duty on iron and steel reduced.

To this Mr. LINDSAY replied that Mr. MILLS did not voice the sentiment of the Democratic party, a disownment which made the Texas Free-trader glare at the Kentuckian with ill suppressed rage.

"Mr. ALDRICH taunted the majority by saying that neither the Texas nor the Kentucky Senator knew what the Democratic party wanted, and this provoked Mr. LINDSAY into the incautious declaration that 'if the Republicans would agree to take a vote upon the Tariff bill today the Democratic policy would immediately become evident.'

At this point Mr. ALDRICH threw his gauntlet into the lists. He caused a sensation by vote upon the Tariff bill as it came from the House at 3 o'clock that day.

Mr. LINDSAY gasped, but found breath to ask why Mr. ALDRICH did not include the amendments made by the Finance Committee of the Senate. Even to this Mr. ALDRICH baldly asserted, declaring that he would agree to a vote at once upon the bill as it now stands, including the amendments—most of which are merely verbal—which have thus far been reported by the Finance Committee. Mr. ALDRICH challenged both Mr. LINDSAY and Mr. HARRIS, the Democratic leader, to accept his proposition.

LINDSAY weakly replied that he was not authorized to speak for the majority of the Senate, while Mr. HARRIS remained silent. Both of Mr. ALDRICH's challenges being thus declined, Mr. LINDSAY continued his speech.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

The notable event of the week was the wedding of Miss Alice Fox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Fox and Joseph Evans Caldwell, all of Mason county.

The ceremony took place Wednesday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, one mile East of Mayville.

Elmer F. Thode officiated.

The gathering of friends and relatives numbered about 150.

The bride is the daughter of a group of 19 summer visitors who have just attained their legal majority, and has a comfortable home and fine farm, the home of her parents who were the young couple who reside after returning from their wedding trip. The bride was the recipient of many valuable presents. Bon voyage.

ORANGEBURG.

Miss Cora Luman visited friends in our town Monday.

A. C. Coryell is building a tobacco barn for Mrs. E. Phillips.

Miss Bertie Campbell and brother spent a pleasant day in the country Tuesday last.

Two couple of young people attended the ordination services at Galilee Sunday night.

Miss Mollie Hord of Richland has organized a class in instrumental music and will meet once a week at their respective homes.

The Christian Endeavor Society will entertain at the stately home of J. D. Mayville next week. All members of the society are invited to attend.

Children, plants and animals grow more rapidly during the night.

Hon. A. J. Carroll of Louisville, Speaker of the Kentucky House of Representatives, and Miss Sarah Holt, eldest daughter of ex Chief Justice Holt of Frankfort, will marry on Wednesday, June 6th.

The trial of the State case, terminated in Judge Carroll's Court at Frankfort yesterday afternoon. The Court holds that the $50,000 should be raised from the estate of the ex-Treasurer and credited on the bonds, which leaves $37,000 owing from the securities. The decision of the Court will be appealed from and the question will be next passed upon by the Court of Appeals.

For the first four months of 1864 the fine assessed by the Police Court were $700.01. This with some other officers and two local elections held during the period. For the same time this year the fine assessed amounted to $624.50. This with only five officers on the force and no election. The increase in fines and the reduction in the force shows that the off cars have been quite attentive to their duties. Just now Mayville is a very quiet, well-governed city.

INFIRMARY SCANDAL.

Serious Charge Made by an Inmate Against an Officer.

At the Mason County Infirmary it has come to light that Miss Sarah Dixon, one of the inmates, is in trouble.

She is continual and is thought to be incurable, yet she admits her unfortunate condition, and says that John Slack, an overseer at the Infirmary, is responsible.

We learn that, upon the facts coming to the knowledge of Superintendent Ryan, he promptly dismissed Slack.

An investigation will likely follow.

COMMITTEE CALLED.

Hon. Ed. Daws, Chairman of the Republican Congressional Committee for the Ninth District, has called a meeting of the Committee, to be held at the Central Hotel in this city on Saturday, May 19th, at 1 p.m.

The purpose is for consultation and to fix the place and date for holding the District Convention to nominate a candidate for Congress.

A full attendance of the members is earnestly solicited.

Philadelphians celebrated Arbor Day by planting an elm tree in Fairmount Park in memory of Dr. D. Hayes Agnew; a sturdy oak in memory of General Meade; of Gettysburg fame; an ash for George W. Childs and a sugar maple for Governor Hartman. In the case of Mr. Childs the planting of a memorial tree was particularly appropriate, for it was his custom whenever a distinguished man visited him at Woodbury, his country estate, to ask his guest to plant a tree there.
